Lesson 21 material: Project Part 1: Interview; Vocabulary Review

2.5: Unit Project Part 1- Interview

From Speaking, Listening and Pronunciation Projects for ELLs - Intermediate Level by Brittany Zemlick, Grossmont College (CC BY 4.0). This section: CC BY 4.0; authored, remixed or curated by Brittany Zemlick.
Original page, with audio and online exercises:
https://human.libretexts.org/Bookshelves/Languages/English_as_a_Second_Language/Book%3A_Speaking_Listening_and_Pronunciation_Projects_for_ELLs_-_Intermediate_Level_(Zemlick)/02%3A_Getting_to_Know_You/2.05%3A_Unit_Project_Part_1-_Interview
Changes: formatted for print; exercise answers are in the study guide.

Project: Interview a Friend of Family Member

Task

1. Write at least 5 yes/no questions and 5 wh- questions. You can use some of the questions from this unit if you prefer. Practice reading the questions using correct intonation. Remember to use correct intonation for yes/no and wh- questions.
2. Make a video of yourself interviewing someone you know. Ask them about their job, their hobbies, their family and anything else that interests you.
3. Include the following in your video:
   - 5 yes/no questions
   - 5 wh- questions
   - Ask about the person's job.
   - Ask about the person's hobbies.
   - Ask about the person's family.
   - Ask about the person's values. (What is most important to the person?)
4. We must be able to see you and your interviewee in the video.
5. The interview must be conducted in English.
6. Provide a list of at least 10 questions you asked during the video interview. Make a note of which questions have rising intonation and which have falling intonation. You can write "rise" and "fall" or use arrows that point up and down.

Purpose: Why are we doing this?

- You will practice communication skills including asking questions and listening for replies in English.
- You will review and practice using pronunciation features we have learned in this unit including correct intonation in questions.

Rubric

50 Points Possible

| Criteria | Excellent | Good | Needs Improvement (Resubmission Required) | No Marks (Resubmission Required) |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 10 | 7 | 5 | 0 | |

| Content | Ask about the person's job. | Ask about the person's hobbies. | Ask about the person's family. | Ask at least 2 questions that were not in the example video. | The student meets all four requirements. | The student meets 3 of the 4 requirements. | The student meets 2 of the 4 requirements. | The student meets 1-0 of the requirements. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Ask 5 yes/no questions | Ask 5 wh- questions | The student asks a minimum of 5 yes/no questions and 5 wh- questions. | The student asks 3-4 yes/no questions and 3-4 wh- questions. | The student asks 2 yes/no questions and wh- questions. | The students asks less than 3 questions. | | | |

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Volume and eye contact | Both participants can been seen in the video. The student speaks loudly enough to be heard comfortably and the student looks at the interviewee often. The student has memorized most of the questions and speaks confidently with little aid from notes. | Both participants can be seen in the video. The student looks at the interviewee occasionally. The student is reading some of the questions and has made some attempt to practice or memorize the questions before making the video. | Both participants can be seen in the video. The student is clearly reading most of the questions and has made little effort to practice or memorize the questions before recording. The student is too reliant on notes and may not understand the questions he/she is asking. | The student's and interviewee's faces are not seen during the video at any time and/or the student reads all of the questions with littl evidence that he/she understands what is being read. | | | | | |
| Pronunciation Focus | Vowel Sounds | Consonant Sounds | Linking Consonants to Vowels | Correct intonation used for Wh-Questions | Correct intonation used for yes/no questions | The student is very clear and easy to understand. Individual words are clear and easy to understand. Correct intonation is used for all of the questions. | The student is mostly clear and easy to understand. Correct intonation is used for most of the questions. | The student is understandable some of the time. Correct intonation is used for some of the questions. | Most of the presentation is difficult to understand. Student makes no attempt to use correct intonation when asking questions. |
| Transcript | A list of at least 10 questions is provided. Correct intonation noted for each question. | A list of at least 10 questions is provided. Correct intonation is NOT noted for each question. | Written questions are not provided. | | | | | | |
| Total | | | | | | | | | |

Example

Example Video

Watch the video from the beginning of this unit to get some ideas for your own interview. You do not need to ask the same questions.

Video: https://youtu.be/Wa0582oOYgY

Example Transcript

1. What's your name? (fall)
2. Where did you grow up? (fall)
3. Where are you living now? (fall)
4. What's your job? (fall)
5. What do you do each day? (fall)
6. Why do you like your job? (fall)
7. What do you not like about your job? (fall)
8. Why is your job important to you? (fall)
9. What do you like to do in your free time? (fall)
10. Do you have a car? (rise)
11. Are you a morning person? (rise)

12. Do you eat meat? (rise)
13. Are you a vegan? (rise)
14. What does that mean? (fall)
15. Why are you vegan? (fall)

Brainstorm/Plan

1. Write the questions you might like to ask a friend or family member.
2. After you have a good list of questions, put them in order.

Post-Project Discussion

Your classmates videos will be posted on an online forum. Watch two of your classmates' videos. Post a thoughtful comment or question to each classmate or group.

2.5: Vocabulary Review: Getting to Know You

From Getting to Know You - An Intermediate Integrated-Skills Module for English Learners by Sara Ferguson, Grossmont College (CC BY-NC-SA). This section: CC BY-NC-SA; authored, remixed or curated by Sara Ferguson.
Original page, with audio and online exercises: https://human.libretexts.org/Bookshelves/Languages/English_as_a_Second_Language/Getting_to_Know_You_-_An_Intermediate_Integrated-Skills_Module_for_English_Learners_(Ferguson)/02%3A_Chapter_2/2.5%3A_Vocabulary_Review%3A_Getting_to_Know_You
Changes: formatted for print; exercise answers are in the study guide.

Vocabulary Words for "Getting to Know You"

| College/University | Careers and Education | Majors and Specializations | Idioms, Affixes, and Signal Words | About the texts |
|---|---|---|---|---|

| Dormitory | Freshman | Sophomore | Junior | Senior | Major | Declare a major | Graduate (v) | Graduation | Associate's degree | Bachelor's degree | Master's degree | Doctoral degree | Specializ |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|

Vocabulary Practice: College/University

Below, write the names of the four years of high school or college/university. The first year has been provided for you.

- Freshman
- ...

Below, write a list of four degrees that you can earn from a college/university. The last degree has been provided for you.

- ...
- Doctoral degree

Match the vocabulary words below to the examples.

- Vocabulary words:
  - Major
  - Graduation
  - Dormitory
  - Specialize
  - Semester
  - Scholarship
- Examples:
  - A small room or apartment where students sleep
  - Spring, Summer, or Fall in college
  - Free money for students to attend school
  - Child development, biology, psychology, engineering
  - To study a specific topic deeply and in detail
  - A special celebration of the completion of a course of study

Fill in the blanks below with the following words:

- Program
- Graduate
- Undergraduate
- Declare a major

A counselor can help you _____. The counselor will ask about your interests and the classes you have already completed. Then they will help you decide what to study for your degree.

Students who are studying for an associate's degree or bachelor's degree are called _____ students. Students who are studying for a degree after their bachelor's are called _____ students.

A _____ is a plan of action to achieve a goal. You can have one for exercise, study, or other goals.

Vocabulary Practice: Careers and Education

Sometimes words in English can act as both verbs and nouns. These words have the same meaning, but they play a different role in the sentence. Below are examples.

- Example 1: Intern (v): When he was in college, he interned at an architectural company
- Example 2: Intern (n): He was an intern for three years at American Eagle Clothing company

To intern (v) means to work for a company or organization for little or no pay in exchange for education in a field or discipline

An intern (n) is a person who works for a company or organization for little or no pay in exchange for education in a field or discipline

The following words can be either nouns or verbs...

- Volunteer
- Design
- Mentor
- Challenge

Use the words above to fill in the blanks below. Check verbs to make sure you have used the correct tense and subject-verb agreement.

- When Jennifer gets her degree, she wants to _____ buildings and parks.
- The _____ for the Empire State Building is a beautiful art deco style.
- When I was a student, I _____ in the food pantry. I worked for free because I wanted to help others.
- Razia is a _____ at the symphony. She hands out programs and sells tickets, but doesn't receive any pay.
- It is a _____ to learn English. It takes a lot of time, energy, and hard work!
- Our instructor always _____ us to learn more vocabulary. After we learn 5 words, she says, "Try one more!"
- Our college has a program that matches students together to help each other. More experienced students _____ new students by showing them the campus and helping them get ready for their classes.
- When you start a new job, it's so valuable to have a _____. They will teach you about the job and help you succeed!

Some verbs in English require an object. They need to be followed by somebody (sbd) or something (sth). These verbs are transitive.

- Inspire (sbd)
- Pursue (sbd, sth)
- Develop (sth)
- Motivate (sbd)

Match the words above with their definitions or examples below...

- These two words have a very similar meaning. They both mean to cause someone to want to do something. These verbs have a very positive meaning, and always have a person as an object. The words are _____ and _____.
- This word means to follow. You can follow a person, a program, or a career. The word is _____.
- This word means to build something or cause it to grow. You can build or grow a program, a class, a problem, a relationship, an interest, an organization, or a business. The word is _____.

Fill in the blanks using the words above.

- (Two possibilities) Her eighth grade teacher _____/_____ her to study physics because he made it so interesting.
- After college, he decided to _____ a career in photography.
- In geography class, she _____ an interest in geomatics.

Here is another set of words.

- Adventure
- Travel
- Goal
- Employer
- Skills
- In high demand

Use the words above to fill in the blanks below.

What kind of career would you like? For myself, I prefer a career where my _____ is a small business, not a large organization. I want to work for a company with fewer than 20 people. I don't want a boring job. I want my job to be an _____, so I hope I will be able to do things that are exciting and even a little dangerous. I also like to _____, whether it's by plane or by car. I hope my job allows me to go to different countries. How will I get a job like this? My _____ is to earn a degree from a good university in a field that is _____. I will learn all of the _____ that I need to pursue a satisfying career.

Match the vocabulary words below with the definitions.

- Vocabulary words:
  - Resource
  - Recipient
  - Journey
  - Public service
  - Professional
  - Personal
  - Opportunity

- Valuable
- Task

- Definitions:
  - A person who receives something
  - Chance; suitable time
  - A job that helps everyone in the community; sometimes a job in the government
  - The act of traveling
  - A small job
  - A place or thing that is useful
  - Private; affecting just one person
  - Affecting the career or job
  - Very helpful or important, or worth a lot of money

Idioms and Affixes

- (Not) by a long shot
  - This idiom is usually used in the negative and means a strong negative
  - EX: Did you pass the final exam? Not by a long shot. I wasn't prepared, so I completely failed it.
  - EX: She wasn't my favorite person by a long shot. She liked to gossip and always came to my parties late and ate all the food.
- Don't mess with (sbd, sth)
  - This is an informal idiom that means don't make this person angry or don't cause trouble with this thing
  - EX: Would you like me to fix your lamp? No, please don't mess with it. Last time you fixed it, you broke it.
  - EX: Don't mess with the dog next door. It might bite you.
- Lead through example
  - This idiom means to act in a way that shows others how to act
  - EX: It's important that parents lead through example. Show your kids how much you value education and they will value it too.
- On board
  - This idiom means "on a team" or "in a group." We often use it for work, to mean "working here" or "working with us"
  - EX: Now that Mike is on board at this company, out work will be much easier
- Multi-
  - This is a prefix meaning many. Words that use "multi" include "multilingual" and "multi-task"
- Un-/in-/im-/non-
  - These prefixes mean "not." Words that use these prefixes include "undeclared," "unfriendly," "inhospitable," "impossible," and "non-verbal"