Introduction to Psychology

Yale University · Professor Paul Bloom · Spring 2007

Study pack for personal study with a local AI tutor.
Source: https://oyc.yale.edu/introduction-psychology/psyc-110
License of the original material: Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 3.0 (Open Yale Courses).

How to study each lecture

1. Read the study guide (about 20 minutes). Underline new words. Try the questions before you look at the answer page.
2. Talk with your tutor (about 30 minutes). In the app, open Study, choose this course and the lecture's topic, and start Live conversation. Use the lines in "Study with your tutor".
3. Read or listen to the full lecture when you want more depth. The transcript PDF has every word, by chapter.
4. Review the next day. The app's Today page shows the topics and words that are due.

Study plan (2 lectures a week)

Week	Lecture	Files to print
1	Lecture 1: Introduction	study guide, transcript, slides
1	Lecture 2: Foundations: This Is Your Brain	study guide, transcript, slides
2	Lecture 3: Foundations: Freud	study guide, transcript, slides
2	Lecture 4: Foundations: Skinner	study guide, transcript, slides
3	Lecture 5: What Is It Like to Be a Baby: The Development of Thought	study guide, transcript, slides
3	Lecture 6: How Do We Communicate?: Language in the Brain, Mouth and the Hands	study guide, transcript, slides
4	Lecture 7: Conscious of the Present; Conscious of the Past: Language (cont.); Vision and Memory	study guide, transcript, slides

4	Lecture 8: Conscious of the Present; Conscious of the Past: Vision and Memory (cont.)	study guide, transcript, slides
5	Lecture 9: Evolution, Emotion, and Reason: Love	study guide, transcript, slides
5	Lecture 10: Evolution, Emotion, and Reason: Evolution and Rationality	study guide, transcript, slides
6	Lecture 11: Evolution, Emotion, and Reason: Emotions, Part I	study guide, transcript, slides
6	Lecture 12: Evolution, Emotion, and Reason: Emotions, Part II	study guide, transcript, slides
7	Guest Lecture 1: Brain and Perception	study guide
7	Lecture 13: Why Are People Different?: Differences	study guide, transcript, slides
8	Lecture 14: What Motivates Us: Sex	study guide, transcript, slides
8	Guest Lecture 2: The Psychology, Biology, and Politics of Food	study guide
9	Lecture 15: A Person in the World of People: Morality	study guide, transcript, slides
9	Lecture 16: A Person in the World of People: Self and Other, Part I	study guide, transcript, slides
10	Lecture 17: A Person in the World of People: Self and Other, Part II; Some Mysteries: Sleep, Dreams, and Laughter	study guide, transcript, slides
10	Lecture 18: What Happens When Things Go Wrong: Mental Illness, Part I	study guide, transcript, slides
11	Lecture 19: What Happens When Things Go Wrong: Mental Illness, Part II	study guide, transcript, slides
11	Lecture 20: The Good Life: Happiness	study guide, transcript, slides

Guest lectures 1 and 2 have no published transcript; their short guides are based on the official overview only.